

Forgetting that the year's day is not a promise and promise is the grand ball under the auspices of the Burns Club, arranged to come off on Monday night. Ourself "and ladies are respectfully invited to attend." If we are not there, it will be because of some strong countervailing cause operating a prevention of gratifying a desire very near the heart.

CAME.—The market abounds in game of all kinds. The passer-by is confronted at every turn by game, both indigenous and exotic, of every description, and inductively stops to take in their richness in a sweeping glance as he passes in the discharge of his duty. A local especially can not heed impulses when they contravene the inexorable restrictions of his duty as an Hon. Hunter. The public won't allow it.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER'S COURT.—Samuel Russell, of Cicero, Hamilton County, Indiana, was arraigned, yesterday, before United States Commissioner Kimball, on the charge of having forged signatures to receipts on Second Auditor's vouchers, in such a way as to draw the money belonging to soldiers. The trial resulted in the accused being recognized in the sum of $1,500.00, to appear at the next term of the United States Circuit Court. John Hanna for the United States; R. L. Walpole for defendant.

LITERARY.—Volume III, No. 1, of the Home Visitor makes its appearance this morning in a new dress and enlarged form. It is now, by all odds, the finest looking literary paper West of New York city; and whether in respect to its typographical appearance or the subject matter of its contents, it is a worthy contemporary of the Mercury, Ledger, etc. We wish the Home Visitor and its enterprising proprietors all manner of success. It will be offered for sale by the news-boy, and at all the New's Depots throughout the country.

IMPORTANT SUIT.—Yesterday a bill in Chancery was filed in the United States Circuit Court, by Samuel Rogers, Robert Hamlin, Jacob Vere, James Price, et al., ex. Cincinnati and Chicago Air Line Railroad. The complainants aver that the recent sale, at which the present company purchased the road, was fraudulent, and ask that such sale be set aside. The question will come up before the United States Circuit Court, at the May term. Property to the amount of over $4,000,000 is involved in this action. Hendricks & Ford have been retained as counsel for the plaintiff.

THE "GOVERNOR MOTION."—The New Albany Commercial is responsible for the following: "The Indianapolis steamboat, Governor Morton, which is about the size of half a pound, but of soap after a hard day's washing, is to go to the 'docks' (a saw buck) at Indianapolis for repairs."

The man who wrote the above don't know any thing about steamboat matters. We will justify him that the steamboat "Governor Morton" is the largest vessel in the employ of the Indianapolis and White River Steamboat Company. Sewell's Master, and Butterfield's Clerk.

AMUSEMENTS.—The theater was completely packed last night, on the occasion of Mr. White's benefit. Mr. White appeared with his usual happy effects "Billy Lackaday," "In the comedy of 'Sweetheart and Wife,'" and "Jack Cabbage," in the farce of "Fashionable Society." Mr. White was called before the curtain, at the close of the first performance, and, unexpected to himself, was presented with an elegant gold watch, which had been purchased for him by a number of his friends. The presentation was made by Mr. Riley, in a very neat speech, and responded to by White with eloquent lips and with eloquent looks. Tonight's very attractive bill of "All that Glitters is not Gold," and "The Golden Farmer."

FIGHT.—When men fall out and come to blows it is bad enough and sad to see; but when women fight, it is unnatural and disgusting in the extreme. Yesterday morning, at an early hour, two women engaged in a fight in the south-eastern portion of the city; they met, and after sharp words, face slapping commenced, and was carried on with some vigor for a few moments, varied by hair pulling for a change. They were stopped in their irrepressible conflict by a good natured colored man, who threatened police and every other terror that his brain could invent. The police did not appear, and the ladies, who had an old feud between them, went separate ways, glancing angrily at each other. The women were decently clad, one being evidently a husband's wife, the other was too daintily dressed to be honest, we fear.

PERSONAL.—General R. C. Kise, of Lebanon; W. R. McKee, of Terre Haute; R. Webb, of Lafayette; J. W. Burrell, of Muncie; T. J. McNewell, of Peru; Charles Anderson, of Jeffersonville; and T. M. Lord, of Cincinnati, are stopping at the Bates House.

General James M. D. Hays, of Amsterdam, Germany; Corporal W. H. Kaufman, of County Clear, Indiana; Hon. Paris C. Dunlap, of Bloomington; J. R. Monahan, of Richmond; Rev. J. J. Smith, of Shelbyville; M. D. Dagan, of Greencastle; and J. C. Martin, of Chicago, are stopping at the Palmer House.

C. P. Butler, of Peru; George A. Felding, of Thornton; and D. G. Rodgers, of Cincinnati, are stopping at the Spencer House.

Colonel O. A. Bartholomew, of the Eighth United States Colored Infantry; Hon. T. N. Stivers, of Anderson; R. F. Hays, of Greencastle; Hon. George M. Thoscher and James Harrison, of Shelby; and R. L. Bead, of Cincinnati, are stopping at the Sherman House.

enjoining the Assessor from assessment until the matter can be determined by the Court, at its next session. The case promises to be one of considerable importance, and will lead to an official interpretation of the section above referred to, which will be of great interest to all persons engaged in a similar branch of business. In the case in question, it will be decisive of the fact whether the firm of Osmond & Smith shall pay to the United States $200 or $300 per month, or retain the same as a part of their gain.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Hamlin & Raschig have removed their office to Exchange Building, 235 North Illinois street, opposite Bates House. nov18-2m

Gems from Tennessy.—A few copies of that beautifully illustrated edition at BOWEN, STEWART & CO.'S.

Amusements—New Year's Presents.—To the Citizens of Indianapolis: You will all be pleased to hear that your old favorite is about to return. Who can it be? Professor Jukes, the Bohemian Glass Blower! The Professor will positively commence a short engagement at the Museum on New Year's day, and will present on that day to each visitor, a specimen of his wonderful art. Each specimen to be a free gift and worth the price of admission to the Museum. The citizens will remember with pleasure the last engagement of this wonderful man, who gave universal satisfaction to all. These beautiful holiday presents will be a new wrinkle, and will certainly attract much attention. Other new features have been added for the holidays. Among the late arrivals is the great Mountain Bear—not from Wall street, but Colorado.

Come at Last!—The king of cures for Dr. Swain's Bourbon Bitters is now in our city for the purpose of establishing depots for the sale of his Bitters, which are now so popular, and so much called for throughout the country. We have no doubt but our wholesale druggists and grocery men will endeavor to keep a stock on hand to supply the country trade. We call your attention to his advertisement.

Consumption Cured Without Medicine.—Marshall, Michigan, June 12, 1889.—Two years and a half ago I enlisted in the United States service. Last August I was taken prisoner, and lay in the Confederate prison seven months. While there I took a fever, which soon relapsed into a disease of the lungs, and since then, until my timely relief from Professor Schlotterback, was rapidly on the decline—pronounced by all my medical attendants consumption incurable. When Professor S. came to this city I applied to him, and received his treatment. When I first applied to him I was carried to his office, being unable to sit up, even in bed. At the first operation I gained wonderful strength, and as ever in my life, I am able to walk around all day without tiring me, and am rapidly improving; consider myself a sound and well man. I feel that I am indebted to Professor Schlotterback for saving my life, for which I am ever grateful.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of June, 1890. JAMES O. ROBINSON, Justice of the Peace.

The celebrated psychological physician, Professor Schlotterback, who treats diseases without medicine, will arrive in our city Sunday, January 28, 1890. He will occupy for office the parlors, with adjoining rooms, Palmer House. See his circular advertisement in the Banner of Light.
